Party on the Square

If you are looking for a unique location for your next event, then look no further than the History Center at Courthouse Square. Steeped in nearly two hundred years of history, our grounds make a spectacular backdrop for weddings, graduations, family reunions, corporate events, and more!

What's included?

At this time, the BCHA is only offering rental of the grounds and buildings. Third party vendors can provide you with tents, tables, chairs, and more to make your event everything you dreamed it to be.

Please contact us for local suppliers to fit your particular needs.

Join us in Berrien Springs

The central location of the History Center at Courthouse Square allows for your parties to be in the heart of the Cornerstone of Michigan. With wineries, breweries, hotels, resorts, and more within a reasonable driving distance, our location becomes the hub for a spectacular time!

By renting with the BCHA, you're helping to preserve the history of Berrien County.

Your rental fee supports our on-going efforts to share our history with the world, including the creation of programs and exhibits, the preservation of our collections, and continued educational opportunities for our visitors.
